Prize Conditions

Foreword

This document outlines the general rules and regulations that must be adhered to at all times when participating in an ESL Pro Tour Counter-Strike competition. Non-compliance with these rules may result in penalties as outlined herein.

Please note that this document may be supplemented or superseded by additional regulations where explicitly stated.

It is important to note that the tournament administration retains the final authority in all matters. In exceptional cases, decisions may be made that are not explicitly supported or described in this rulebook - or that may even deviate from it - in order to uphold the principles of fair play and sportsmanship.

We sincerely hope that you, as a participant, spectator, or member of the press, enjoy the competition. The tournament administration is committed to ensuring the event is fair, engaging, and enjoyable for everyone involved.

Sincerely,

The tournament administration team

1. Eligibility for prizes

Participants must comply with all tournament rules and requirements to be eligible for any prize.

2. Distribution of prizes

Prizes will be awarded to the winning players at the end of the tournament, according to the official rankings determined by the match results. Prizes are non-transferable and cannot be exchanged for other products.

3. Delay in awarding prizes

In the event of delays in prize delivery due to circumstances beyond the organizers' control, players will be promptly informed of any changes to the delivery date.

4. Additional requirements for receiving prizes

Winners must provide the necessary information (such as the agreed-upon payment method) to receive their prize.

5. Prize Conditions

The prizes will be awarded at the end of the tournament. If, due to circumstances, this is not possible, they will be awarded on the next available day. The tournament organizers reserve the right to modify or replace the prizes if necessary, as long as the prize value is similar to or greater than the original prize.

6. Conduct during the tournament

Any inappropriate behavior, cheating, or violations of tournament rules may result in a player's disqualification and forfeiture of any prizes.

Rules for the physical prize of the tournament

1. Nature of the Prize

The tournament trophy consists of a handmade baked clay figurine made by artisan Fran Carrillo. This trophy is a free and symbolic gift, with no monetary or commercial value.

2. Non-profit nature

The tournament organizers do not benefit from this prize. There is no cost to players for registration or participation in the tournament.

Subjective disagreement with the design or appearance of the trophy.

5. Acceptance of the rules

Participation in the tournament implies full acceptance of these terms and conditions regarding the trophy.
